PEOPLE'S FORUM.

NOTE.—The People's Forum being freely open to all parties, classes, opinions, views and capacities, the Virginian-Pilot is responsible for none of the statements nor opinions expressed therein, nor for the style in which they are set forth. The ignorant and uneducated shall be heard here equally with the learned.

Norfolk, Va., June 24, 1899.

Editor Virginian-Pilot:

In the Richmond letter to your valuable paper of yesterday I observed the following:

"The State fair is no more, nor is there likelihood of its being resurrected."

The correspondent who penned those ominous words had in his mind's eye, of course, the decadence of the State fair at Richmond. Whether he is aware of the fact that the State fair is being held annually in Norfolk, I know not, but in order to allay all misapprehension that his letter might have caused, I desire to remark that the Virginia State Fair and Agricultural Association will, in October, open its gates on the grandest and most magnificent grounds ever held in Norfolk.

Mr. John Mariner is at the helm, and by a competent corps of assistants, full of enterprise and public spirit, and they are meeting with that encouragement from Norfolk's liberal merchants which will crown their efforts with success.

An evidence of progress made by the management of the fair is the large edition of handsome catalogues now being issued from the press of Messrs. Burke & Gregory. These books will be extensively circulated and will be the means of attracting thousands to our city.

You will observe, therefore, Mr. Editor, that while the State fair is "no more" in Richmond, it will be "a thing of beauty and a joy forever" in Norfolk.

HO! FOR THE FAIR.
